Engagement of an Individual Consultant – Documentation of Social Impact of Laboratory Systems Strengthening Interventions

A. TERMS OF REFERENCE

Background

From April 2021 to December 2023, the National Agency for the Control of AIDS (NACA) as the Principal Recipient (PR) of the GC6 RSSH grant implemented Laboratory Systems Strengthening activities in collaboration with Nigerian Centre for Disease Control and Prevention (NCDC) and the Medical Laboratory Services Division of the Federal Ministry of Health and Social Welfare (FMOH&SW/MLSD) as Sub-Recipient (SR).

NACA as PR in collaboration with NCDC and FMOH/MLSD &SW as SR for Lab Systems carried out the implementation of the interventions under the GC6 RSSH grant with differing levels of completion.

The grant aimed to enhance integration, equity, quality, and cost-effectiveness in laboratory service delivery. Key interventions included implementation of recommendations from the National Integrated Sample Referral Network (NiSRN) evaluation, infrastructural upgrades, implementation of Quality Management Systems (QMS), external quality assessment (EQA) support, and local EQA panel production.

NACA will continue the implementation of Lab Systems interventions until December 2025. To support future programming, there is a need to document the social impacts of these interventions across communities and health systems.

Objective

To engage an individual consultant, preferably a seasoned academic in the humanities or social sciences, to document the social and developmental impacts of the laboratory systems strengthening interventions implemented under the GC6 RSSH and C19RM grants.

Scope of Work

The Consultant will:

1. Conduct qualitative research to assess social outcomes of laboratory systems interventions.
2. Document stories of change and the broader societal impact of improved laboratory systems
3. Develop case studies and human-interest stories reflecting community perspectives on access and quality of laboratory services.
4. Analyze the role of integrated sample referral systems in enhancing service delivery at community and facility levels.

5. Produce a comprehensive report and at least one publishable social science manuscript for peer-reviewed journals.

Expected Deliverables

- Inception Report with work plan and methodology
- Field notes and interview transcripts
- Final Social Impact Documentation Report
- Minimum of one manuscript suitable for submission to a peer-reviewed journal
